[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Jan. 6.—[Special.]—Tomorrow undoubtedly will determine whether Chicago's Soldiers' field is to be the scene of the 1926 Army-Navy football game.

Stadium Dedication Cited.
Supported by Senators Deneen and McKinley, both of Illinois, Mr. Britten argued to Mr. Davis that dedication of the $3,000,000 Soldiers' field memorial stadium by President Coolidge will be justification enough for sending the teams and cadet corps of the two academies west.

Maryland Representative.
Lithiumum (Dan., Md.) is a member of the floor of the house when he attempted to gain recognition to discuss the political presence which he senses is being wielded by Mr. Britten before the military and naval academies to shatter time-honored traditions which have kept the football classic between Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York.

The score by innings of the championship billiard match follows:
SCHAEFER—37 133 1 0 85 138 82 170 19 210 125 140 125 7 190 33-1,500.

BY MORROW KRUM.
Young Jacob Schaefer regained the world's 18.2 balk line billiard championship at Orchestra hall yesterday. Schaefer defeated Edward Horemans, who relinquished the title after a last minute burst of speed. The match ended in the sixteenth inning with the score 1,500-890.

Final Block a Thriller.
The records, the brilliant play of Schaefer and the many tributes of veteran fans during the contest give evidence that Chicago has just staged the greatest 1,500 point balk line competition in history. Even Charles Peterson, who has refereed more championship matches than any other, says the Schaefer-Horemans affair breaks all records.
