

Morningstar, One Time Billiard Champion, Dies

Rochester, Ind., May 29 [Special]—Ora Morningstar, 70, former world 18.1 ~~balkline~~ billiard champion, is dead at his home in San Diego, Cal., relatives were advised today. He was a native of Rochester. After Morningstar won the 18.1 title he toured the world several times, meeting all challengers. Morningstar lost his championship to Willie Hoppe and had since operated a billiard room in San Diego.

Minor Leagues

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

	W.	L.	Pct.		W.	L.	Pct.
*Milw.	17	9	.654	*Columbus	16	18	.471
*Louisv.	16	12	.571	*Kas. City	12	16	.429
*Indpls.	16	13	.552	*Mpls.	12	16	.429
*Toledo	14	15	.483	*St. Paul	11	15	.423

*Last night's game not included.

THE PRIMA PHILOSOPHER Says

What prevents many people from attaining wisdom is the idea that they already possess it.

PRIMA AMERICA'S FINEST
BEER